Guarantee of Non-use Conflict Metals

Conflict metals are metals such as gold (Au), tantalum (Ta), tungsten (W), cobalt (Co), palladium (Pd) and tin (Sn) derived from minerals being sourced from mines in Democratic Republic of Congo (hereinafter "DRC") conflict areas which are controlled by non-government military groups, or unlawful military factions. Armed groups to take the mineral profits in exchange for war materials, war with government, press civilian to mine and kidnap child to be soldiers etc.

QPL has taken actions to request our suppliers to comply with QPL's conflict metals policy and RBA Conflict-Free Smelter Program. Suppliers are required to provide non-conflict-metals guarantee on sources of the smelter / mining to ensure materials are not sourced from mines in conflict areas.
